INTRODUCTION

This guide, using government sources and non-mainstream media, provides ample evidence to expose the Democrats' un-American conduct. In November, they need to be held accountable.

For more info on the unconstitutionality of the Dems' votes, please see: <https://thefreedomindex.org/ct/>. It is imperative that, prior to the November election, we grasp the relationship between the Democrat legislators' votes and the loss of our freedoms!

DEMOCRATS: EXPLAIN YOUR VOTES!

YOU VOTED FOR a bill that would allow unelected bureaucrats to rob CT residents, taking away their choice of transportation, home and business heating, and ultimately their professions, should they interfere with your politically fabricated climate-change crisis.

HB 5004 - An Act Concerning the Implementation of Certain Climate Change Measures

93 Democrats
1 Republican

Too many heat pumps would bring grid failure to CT

<https://ctmirror.org/2024/04/16/ct-hb-5004-heat-pumps/>

Chris Herb, CT Mirror

“Adding 310,000 electric heat pumps to the grid would be the equivalent of powering an additional 44 small towns in Connecticut, based on statistics used by the National Grid. That’s a lot of power, and as things stand now, we don’t have it.

In order to be successful, the grid would need a massive, multi-billion-dollar upgrade. But there’s no real plan in place on how to do this, and who would pay for it. All it takes now is a three-day heat wave or a cold snap to push us over the edge. Imagine having to come up with the extra energy to power 44 small towns on a 100-degree summer day or 10-degree winter day?”

“The legislation also ignores the housing affordability crisis in the state by introducing mandates for electrification in all new constructions and renovations. Furthermore, it requires the adoption of pollution-free HVAC and water heating equipment by 2030.”

DEMOCRATS: EXPLAIN YOUR VOTES!

YOU VOTED FOR an act which creates a council to steer the state toward banning gas-powered vehicles.

Raised Bill HB 5485 - An Act Concerning Transportation Infrastructure For Electric Vehicles

22 Democrats
0 Republicans

Creates a "roadmap" that steers Connecticut to a mandate that forces residents to purchase an electric vehicle and could end with Connecticut using California's radical emissions standards.

Senator Hwang's comments on the Electric Vehicle Roadmap Bill

<https://ctsenaterepublicans.com/2024/10/3/senator-hwangs-comments-on-the-electric-vehicle-roadmap-bill/>

Senator Tony Hwang

"We have a responsibility to engage all shareholders, we need to have the confidence they are all being heard. HB 5485 in its current language gives the perception of the majority party putting their thumb on the scales, to possibly create a skewed output from this council that would not be reflective of all voices and perspectives."

-Sen. Tony Hwang

Public Hearing Alert

<https://www.cthousegop.com/hayes/public-hearing-alert-roadmap-to-ev-mandate/>

The "Roadmap" doesn't require a review of the costs associated with:

- Charging infrastructure & electric grid upgrades
- Increased electric supply needed
- End of life battery disposal
- Adverse impact on infrastructure from increased weight of EVs
- Gas tax revenue replacement

The "Roadmap" also does not:

- Require a review of the adverse environmental aspects of EVs, such as mining of raw materials and excessive tire debris
- Require a review of issues relating to pollution from other states traveling east to Connecticut.

DEMOCRATS: EXPLAIN YOUR VOTES!

YOU VOTED FOR a bill that prevents parents, BOE members or others from removing books deemed to be child-inappropriate from school libraries.

HB 5417 - An Act Concerning Public School Libraries

27 Democrats
1 Republican

To require local and regional boards of education to state a reason for removing or restricting access to public school library materials and prohibiting such boards from removing or restricting access to such materials for certain reasons.

Power over School Library Decisions Transferred to Unelected Librarians

<https://www.ctfamily.org/discretion-in-the-library/> Leslie

"HB5417 sets out draconian restrictions on Board of Education members who recommend removal or even relocation of school library books. The local Board of Education is accountable to voters, school librarians are not – so the bill affects parental rights to influence the content of library materials which are exposed to their children."

Pornography in Children's Libraries?

<https://www.rep-am.com/localnews/2024/04/21/gender-queer-book-sparks-debate-at-goshen-public-library-amid-calls-for-restrictions/>

John McKenna, Republican-American

"Tuesday's meeting of the library board saw several residents comment on the book, with some calling it obscene material that should remain inaccessible to minors.

It absolutely is pornography, and I don't know who said it isn't. It is not appropriate for children to read, and it blows my mind that someone could be defending it."

DEMOCRATS: EXPLAIN YOUR VOTES!

YOU VOTED FOR a bill that destroys voting integrity. It removes the use of a driver's license to prove the owner's eligibility to vote.

HB 5057 - An Act Standardizing Drive-only Licenses

23 Democrats
0 Republicans

Removes a section of statute that states "drive-only" driver's licenses must indicate on the back that they are not meant to be used for voting. These licenses were originally designed to say "drive-only" and were given out to illegal aliens and other people and there are serious concerns the legislation will increase voting fraud.

CT DO Licenses May Spell Trouble in FL

<https://ctnewsjunkie.com/2023/07/11/florida-drivers-license-policy-could-impact-61000-undocumented-connecticut-residents/>
Hugh McQuaid

"Rep. Tom O'Dea, R-New Canaan, said it was his perspective that, while he wants driver-only licenses to work, he doesn't believe that they should fully resemble a standard license. There is a potential for compromise, I believe, but the compromise can't be that we don't have some distinguishing marks on the license," he said. He and Perillo stated that they do not want proper voters to be disenfranchised."

"Some 61,000 Connecticut residents with driver-only licenses could be impacted by a new immigration policy in Florida, which considers invalid certain driving-only credentials for undocumented immigrants from a handful of states. The new Florida law was signed by Gov. Ron DeSantis in May and went into effect July 1. According to a state website, Florida will no longer recognize licenses issued exclusively to undocumented immigrants by the states of Connecticut, Delaware, Hawaii, and Vermont."

SB 00414 - An Act Concerning Equity In State Employment

8 Democrats
0 Republicans

DEI= (DIE, With The Letters Rearranged)

<https://connecticutcentinal.com/dei-die-with-the-letters-rearranged/> Bob Swick

"DEI, was the hot corporate and governmental philosophy after the demise of George Floyd in 2020. However, it is now realized by most to be a failed and largely useless policy. Microsoft, Meta, Google, and Tesla have all either curtailed or severely scaled back their DEI initiatives. Anheuser-Busch almost bankrupted itself on a laughable marketing plan based entirely upon DEI. Parents throughout this country are crying for education in academic skills rather than pandering and a faux attempt of "inclusiveness". However, when it comes to the good old Nutmeg State of Connecticut, the continued embrace of DEI further cements the way of Connecticut fighting for demonstrably failed causes and believing in wrong things, consequences and people be damned."

The Impact of DEI on College Campuses — My testimony before Congress

<https://freeblackthought.substack.com/p/the-impact-of-dei-on-college-campuses>
Erec Smith

"Contemporary DEI is not an extension of the Civil Rights Movement. It is undergirded by a quasi-Marxist ideology called Critical Social Justice. The primary tenet . . . is this: "The question is not 'Did racism take place?' but rather 'how did racism manifest in that situation?'" So according to Critical Social Justice, racism is always already taking place. There is no need to think for oneself; the narrative – one of perpetual oppression – does the thinking for you."

can contemplate this given the fact that there are many people living in our communities who are citizens and are not eligible for insurance."
